Dear Ms. Hoglund,

Thank you for your $500.00 donation from Aviara Real Estate, on behalf of Grant and Erin Withers for their home purchase, that we received on Thursday, April 16, 2009. We thank you for helping us to keep our promise to provide Ventura and Santa Barbara Counties' children and families hope, help and healthy outcomes by strengthening their families for their best chance at life.

The goal at Casa Pacifica is to provide every child with a safe home, whether these children find love and support residing with their own families or a foster family, or by living with us on Casa Pacifica's pastoral campus. While these children are in our care, Casa Pacifica provides a myriad of services to insure they heal, and ultimately, thrive individually and together to live worthwhile, useful lives.

Your contribution underwrites the exceptional assessment, treatment, education, and follow-up services and staff support Casa Pacifica offers children and families who seek us out, or who are assigned to our care. As you know, the cost of these services increases almost daily, however, Casa Pacifica is committed to maintaining and extending the superior quality of its facility and services, and relies on your kindness, both financially and in volunteer time, to realize its vision. With you as our partner, Casa Pacifica is assured to remain an essential and successful child and family care provider in our community.

On behalf of the children of Casa Pacifica who are indebted to you for your respect for their needs and your willingness to support them while they re-create their lives, I thank you.

Sincerely yours,

Vicki Murphy
Director of Development and Operations
